Commander Bob Means

Hello Veterans,

Looking back at the November 2014 Newsletter, we were looking to move forward on permits for the Hall restrooms. We're done!

At this time one year ago we celebrated the retirement of long time "Girl Friday" Marilyn. I'm most grateful to our Office Manager Lindsay Laven for stepping in and helping the Post continue its mission.

I shall miss our Veterans Dinner on the 11th, as there is a fine Redwood Hi Grad getting married in San Diego that I'm going south to support.

Speaking of support, 313 continues to develop a strong relationship with Marin Highlanders Rugby Club. Their program is all about instilling positive values among our youth. Very fine folks.

As always, I encourage each of you to become involved. One can learn a great deal by attending our coffee and pontification sessions on Monday or Thursday mornings. You might find ways to contribute you never thought of.

First Vice Commander Tom Beck

It's November, and for me, all has been quiet. Membership is going nicely. If you haven't renewed your membership for 2016, please do so. And don't forget, you can do this by going to legion.org/renew.

I would like to announce that we have a new building manager, new member, Matt Markham. Matt is a professional commercial building manager and will be a huge help in our ongoing efforts to maintain an old, 6000 sq ft building. Between his knowledge and tradesman contacts, he will be a huge help!

And a final, but odd note. If Marin Sanitary picks up your garbage, you have a smaller trash can option now. You can opt for the new, smaller 20 gallon can. It will save you $5 month vs the 32 gallon can. My family has already switched the service as we never filled up the 32 gallon can. I figure it's worth one gasoline fill up of my truck a year.

Liberation of the Phillipines

Four veterans of the battle to liberate the Philippines in WW II taken at the Marine's Memorial Club in SF on 10-20-15.

The luncheon was hosted by the Philippine consulate to honor the "liberators." Post 313 member Richie Guetter is the veteran holding the cane and his uniform is displayed on the manikin behind him. Members of the Post posted the colors at the start of the ceremony. The Post involvement in the ceremony was arranged by member Kit Kubitz. Ten members attended plus Auxiliary member Pauline Angleman.
